

Members' Allowances

All councillors are legally entitled to a "basic allowance" in respect of their duties as a member of the Council. They may also receive certain other allowances if the authority so decides. The County Council, in the light of a report and recommendations of an independent Remuneration Panel set up for the purpose, has agreed allowances in respect of:

- special responsibilities borne by some members;
- travelling and subsistence expenses necessarily incurred to enable them to perform certain duties as a councillor;
- costs incurred by councillors in arranging for childcare and the care of other dependent relatives where necessitated by their duties as a councillor.

The allowances and pension entitlements - including the amounts of the allowances agreed by the Council, conditions for payment and the categories of duty eligible for travelling, subsistence and carers' allowances - are set out in a formal "Allowances Scheme" under section 18 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (as amended) and the Local Authorities (Members' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003. The provisions of the current Scheme are set out on the following pages.

Members' Allowances Scheme

Set out below are the provisions of the County Council's current Members' Allowances Scheme that applied from 1 April 2022, as amended by the decisions of Council on 8th December 2020 and 2nd November 2021. The appended Schedule 1 reflects the annual up-lift for Members Allowances at the agreed rates in line with staff pay awards.

4. Any special responsibility allowance payable under paragraphs 2 and 3 shall be in addition to the basic allowance payable under paragraph 1.
5. The payment of special responsibility allowances payable under paragraphs 2 and 3 shall be capped so that a councillor may hold no more than two SRA's at any one time.

6. The provisions of the following paragraphs shall have effect to regulate the entitlements of a councillor to basic and special responsibility allowances where, in the course of a year:
 - (a) this Scheme is amended, or
 - (b) a person becomes, or ceases to be, a councillor, or
 - (c) a councillor accepts or relinquishes a special responsibility in respect of which a special responsibility allowance is payable.
7. Where as a result of such an event an entitlement to an allowance commences or terminates, the amount payable shall be assessed on the basis of the number of days in the year on which the entitlement applies, as a proportion of the number of days in that year.
8. Where the effect of such an event is to amend an entitlement in respect of the amount of the allowance, the amended amount shall be payable from the beginning of the day on which the amendment comes into effect, and subject thereto the amounts payable shall be assessed on the basis of the number of days in the year on which the respective entitlements apply, as a proportion of the number of days in that year.

The basic and special responsibility allowances and the co-optee's allowance to the Chair of the Audit Working Group (sections 15 and 16), shall be amended annually by reference to the annual pay settlement for local government staff.
