This sign says the land is access land

Welcome to Kingstone Down. The shaded area on the map is 'Open Access' where you are free to walk anywhere. Why not spend some time absorbing the atmosphere? This site is a County Wildlife Site, of particular importance for its extensive banks of tor grass dominated chalk grassland and associated flora – as well as the Sarsen stones. The land is farmed to encourage this diversity -so please control your dog and please do not drop litter.
